

Bevo is a great favorite in the Army Canteens, where none but pure, soft drinks may be sold. After drill or march, you are sure to see a long line of hot and dusty-throated soldier boys making a bee-line for Bevo. They know that there lies complete satisfaction, full refreshment and pure wholesomeness.

At home or abroad—at work or play—between meals or with meals, you will appreciate what we have done for you in making this triumph in soft drinks.

You will find Bevo at inns, restaurants, groceries, department and drug stores, picnic grounds, baseball parks, soda fountains, dining cars, in the navy, at canteens, at mobilization camps and other places where refreshing beverages are sold.

A LITTLE ROCK FAN SAYS GREELY CAN WIN

BENNY McNEIL SHOWED WELL WITH MINOR BUT IF GREELY CAN LAND WITH RIGHT HE WINS.

A Little Rock fight fan who had seen John Greely in several of his engagements, and who saw Benny McNeil, the English champion battle with Jimmy Major, says that Greely has a splendid chance to win the contest at the Auditorium theatre tomorrow night, regardless of the fact that McNeil is regarded as the most likely winner. "Greely has a wallop in that fight that is dangerous," said the critic, "and I believe that he can put it on McNeil's face. Jimmy Minor hit McNeil often, but lacked the punch, somehow, and of course McNeil knows a lot of defensive, but if Greely and his famous right swing ever get to the Englishman, the contest is over."

Hot Springs have not seen McNeil in action, but they have the advance daps on him and they believe that he will be able to keep out of reach of Greely's right, and will also be able to wear the Cincinnati boy down with his tawofing of right and lefts on the body. The boys will enter the ring in good condition and will have no excuses.

BASKET BALL GAMES.

Fort Smith High Here Saturday and Local Five is Expecting Two Hard Battles.

The basket ball team of Fort Smith high school will invade Central Arkansas next Friday and Saturday with hopes of scratching Hot Springs and Little Rock from their list of dangerous rivals.

Coch Fowlke's team is not working much over what the "Border City" lads might do to Little Rock, Friday, for there would not be many seams shed here if they did pull the naughty Tiger's tail, but they are taking no chances for themselves and are preparing for the best that Fort Smith may send.

Without a doubt this will be the strongest visiting team seen in action here since the Jonesboro quintette of two years ago. According to dope, Martin at center is Fort Smith's star, having played rings around McCarron, of Little Rock, in two clashes of the teams earlier in the season.

The Jones brothers, Atkinson and Kuple, are all fast men and the latter especially is a man of reputation, having been selected as the center and captain of the all-state football team of last season. Of course, this does not speak for his basket ball ability, but it does hint that he is no fly-weight.

Comparing the above five with the wearers of the gold and black it dopes out that two battle royals will occur Saturday afternoon and night.

CHANGE IN SCHEDULE.

HEAR LABOR PROBLEMS.

Washington, Feb. 13.—Although the senate military committee virtually has completed its war inquiry, Chairman Chamberlain late today arranged a hearing tomorrow on labor problems growing out of the government's war operations. H. L. Gantt and Dean Herman Schneider, of the Cincinnati engineering university, both now employed in the ordnance bureau, will discuss the labor situation.

3,000 BEDS FOR THE HOSPITAL HERE

SURGEON GENERAL GORGAS HAS THIS IN VIEW FOR BENEFIT OF INJURED IN THE WAR.

Movement Was Taken Up by the Citizens Some Months and Committee Sent to Washington, and Movement Afterward Dampened.

That Hot Springs will perhaps have its army and navy hospital increased in facilities some 3,000 beds, and that the plans of a committee from the Business Mens League as presented at Washington some months ago, may be agreed on, is given renewed interest in the announcement from Washington yesterday and Surgeon Gorgas spoke of a plan he had whereby sixty-thousand beds in addition were to be placed in hospitals before the winter 1918-19 to care for wounded soldiers and sailors.

About four months ago it was ascertained that the war department was contemplating the erection of big hospital units, and a committee from the Business Mens League consisting of Secretary Belding, Dr. J. C. Minor, and Dr. Deadrick, went to Washington to take the matter of locating a hospital here, with the government. The plans were to have that property north of the highway, and just outside of the city limits, secured, and into a great open grounds of hospital buildings, to be supplied with the terminal hot waters.

It was currently reported that when the feasibility of the proposal of the Hot Springs committee was referred to the commanding officer of the army and navy hospital here, he answered in such a manner that dampened the enthusiasm of the persons who hoped this would prove suitable to the government, and the whole matter was dropped.

The announcement in Washington by Surgeon General Gorgas seems to indicate that a number of hospitals are to be established, and that aside from this, the army and navy hospital here will be increased 3,000 beds.

"Arrangements will be made shortly," said the surgeon general, "for the establishment of a general hospital organized as a colony for the treatment of men suffering from epilepsies". In as much as the climate of Hot Springs is such that persons can be out of doors so many months during the year, it was thought that such a location as we offer for this could be presented to the government to advantage.

The Business Men's League will again renew its work of presenting the benefits and advantages here for the establishment of colonies or other hospital buildings, as well as lend all encouragement to the extension of the present hospital to such an extent that 3,000 or more beds be placed, as the surgeon general says will be done.

It was stated in the same word that the special wards for the insane would be located at Fort Sam Houston, and other points.

FIFTEEN ALIENS LOCKED UP.

New York, Feb. 13.—Fifteen enemy German aliens were locked up in the county jail by department of justice agents for willful refusal to take out zone permits. Twelve other Germans also are being held at the jail for failure to have permits in their possession. The federal agents have recommended to Washington that the twenty-seven men be interned for the period of the war.

RAISE BREAD PRICES.

Chicago, Feb. 13.—Because wheat flour substitutes are as costly and hard to secure as wheat flour itself, Chicago bakers have again raised the price of bread nine cent loaves advancing to ten cents and 13 cent loaves to 15 cents. Officers of the Illinois Master Bakers Association said the price must be raised or bakers would be forced out of business.

Croup at Midnight; Well in Morning.

"A few nights ago one of my patrons had a small child taken with croup about midnight," writes M. T. Davis, Bearsville, W. Va. "They came to my store and got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. Before morning the child was entirely recovered. The father's name is C. C. Craven." Isn't it unwise to experiment with unknown cough medicines when you can get the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar?
